

All carriers need incentives to deploy broadband. For the RBOCs, make the regulations clear and consistent with what the Cable MSOs face. For independent telcos, continue to subsidize as appropriate. However, Tie all decisions to 100% coverage. The next 30% or so by the RBOCs will be the toughest and they will not move without clear vision from a regulatory perspective and a motivator/demand goal that accompanies it